

JUDI MOREO

International Columnist

Well-known Las Vegas businesswoman, Judi Moreo, has moved to Johannesburg, South Africa to become the Group Promotions Manager for Argus Newspapers, Ltd., which include the Johannesburg Star, The Saturday Star, Sunday Star, The Argus, Weekend Argus, The Daily News, The Saturday News, The Natal Mercury, Sunday Tribune, Sowetan, The Pretoria News, Diamond Fields Advertiser, Post Natal, Athlone News, Northern Echo, Plainsman, and Southern Mail.

For the past 5 years, Moreo had owned and operated Moreo International, a Las Vegas based organization representing speaking professionals. A recognized international speaker, specializing in Self Esteem and Customer Service programs, Moreo's cassette albums, "The Image of Success" and "Success Strategies for Secretaries and Office Managers" were released worldwide last month by Audio Word Recording Company.

Former owner of Universal Models and Universal Convention and Trade Associates, Inc., Ms. Moreo had been active in many Las Vegas civic organizations including the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce Women's Council; Soroptimists, International; Women in Communication; the Hotel Sales and Marketing Association; and Toastmasters, International. She is a Past President of the Greater Las Vegas Advertising Federation and the Las Vegas Professional Speakers Association. Her volunteer activities included the Sunshine Bus Committee for Senior Citizens, the Multiple Sclerosis Society, Self Esteem Camps for Teenagers and Pre-Teens as well as donating many hours working for the advancement of women.

Keep track of Judi Moreo's new adventures in Africa by reading her column which will appear regularly in Las Vegas Woman.